

Delhi Club House is inspired by the clubs of colonial India. These institutions were the exclusive domain of their members to catch up with friends & colleagues over a drink or a meal. The food was neither fancy nor gastronomic - It was good, fresh, comfort food, borrowed from each other's cuisines and satisfied the palettes of the 'babus' as well as the Britishers over a drink.

Delhi Club House is a take on the vibe of these old clubs. It reminisces an era gone by, a culture gone by. At DCH we attempt to re-create the old world charm of socializing with food, panning decades of 'club culture' in a relaxed ambience. We look to re-create the old world bonhomie, banter and social relaxing that existed in those clubs.

This menu features dishes & recipes inspired by India's most iconic clubs such as Calcutta's Tollygunge club, the Madras club, the Royal Bombay Yacht club among many many others. It also includes modern day dishes under the DCH banner.

Delhi Club House is your 'adda' or zone to unwind and catch up with friends - simple, unobtrusive, warm, friendly and comfortable.
