About Golu

Golu is a Tamil Nadu delicacy restaurant situated in Upper Dari, Dharamshala, bringing the authentic taste of Tamil Nadu cuisine to the mountains of Himachal.

About the owners

A couple, both chefs – Rishika (a city girl) and Mukesh (a desi boy) – fell in love and ended up marrying each other. They quit their jobs at five-star hotels and decided to start their own restaurant. After a successful start in Chennai, they decided to move to Dharamshala.

The name – Golu!

It's a sister's love for her brother! Golu is Rishika's brother's name at home, and she is very close to him, which is why she chose the name for the restaurant. Golu always reminds us of the unbreakable bond between a brother and a sister.

Golu is also a festival in Tamil Nadu that is celebrated during Vijayadashami, when they burn the effigy of Ravana. It is an artistic display of dolls and figurines.

SHAKH of Rishi'Kesh

In Hindi, shakh means a branch of a tree, and the names Rishi are picked up from RISHIKA and Kesh from MUKESH. So, it is basically a branch of Rishika and Mukesh.

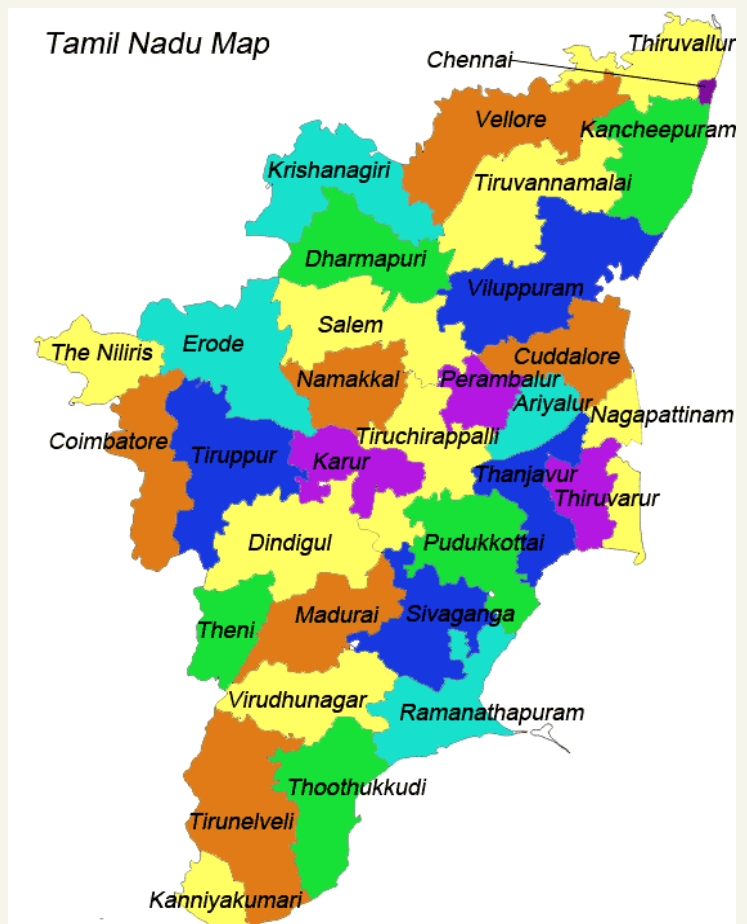

DOSA

Dosa, a thin, crispy pancake made from fermented lentil and rice batter, is a staple of South Indian cuisine and a popular street food. Typically served hot with chutney and sambar, it can be enjoyed as a snack or meal. With origins tracing back to the 5th century AD, dosa comes in various regional and festive variations.

IDLI & UTHAPPAM

Idli, a steamed cake of fermented rice and lentil batter, is a popular South Indian breakfast or snack served with sambar or chutneys. South India, comprising Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Kerala, and Tamil Nadu, is known for its lighter, spicier cuisine. Uthappam, a thick dosa with toppings from Tamil Nadu, is another favorite across the region, enjoyed in homes and restaurants alike.
