

THE DIVINE HOSPITALITY

A vibrant watercolor-style illustration of fresh ingredients is arranged around a central dark brown circle. At the top right are several green leaves. To the left of the circle are two bright red chili peppers. Below the circle are two pieces of wavy, golden-brown fried food. To the right of the circle is a whole red tomato and a sliced tomato showing its seeds and pulp. A small head of purple garlic is also visible near the bottom center.
