ASIAN TAPAS

'Foo' in Chinese culture means "fortune" or "good luck".

Foo above the entrance is a widespread Chinese tradition associated with Chinese New Year and can be seen on the entrances of many Chinese homes worldwide.

Placing the character on a door or doorpost thus translates into a wish for prosperity to descend upon a dwelling and the people who visit. So, welcome to Foo.

May you always be a part of the abundant choices that the universe provides. Enjoy our crafted dishes with hand-picked ingredients for a treat you have never experienced before.

We wish you good times, good health and good fortune.
