True Essence Of Coastal Cuisine

At Matsya, the sea isn't just on your plate — it's in our heart. We grew up on coastal kitchens where fish curry simmered for hours, and every prawn fry had its own story. Here, the catch is fresh, the spices are bold, and the recipes? Straight from Mangalore's shores — passed down, never watered down. No fancy jargon. No fake promises. Just seafood that crackles with freshness and carries the soul of the sea in every bite. Pull up a chair, dip into that curry, and you'll taste what we mean: this is coastal dining, the way it's meant to be!
