FROM THE GRILLS

□ Braised Chicken with Morels & Pilaf 1600

This wonderful get-together dish, as remembered is believed to be connected to King Henri IV of France, who wished for his people to never be without "poule au pot" or "chicken in a pot" after enjoying Bresse chicken during his stay in Bresse at the end of the 16th century. Our version is inspired from the very emotion of getting people together, hence we cook all handpicked ingredients together. We use shallots, fresh herbs, wine-soaked morels mushroom and serve with herb butter pilaf.

MAINS

Serves Two

□ Dal Jamavar 950

Slow cooked black dal has always been associated with celebrations and rich food traditions. We have preserved and nurtured across two decades a prized recipe at Jamavar that elevates the humble black dal to a dish fit for a royal feast. Hence, we take pride in naming it after the Iconic Kitchen where it originated. Our version begins with handpicking the finest ingredients and using our own house made Garam masala that makes it unique and a signature.

Serving Size: 350 gm | Calorie per serving : 626.26 Kcal

□ Dal Tadka 900

What is now a comfort meal for every home originated in the 16th Century with Arab traders introducing spices like cumin and turmeric to India. The use of spices to temper and elevate the flavours of food was a technique that elevated the humble boiled lentils to the "Dal Tadka". Over the years, home cooks and chefs have adapted local ingredients and spices to curate several versions of this versatile dish. A dish that still reminds any Indian of his mother's warm care and a nourishing meal.

RICE

 ■ Awadhi Biryani   	1200
Awadhi Biryani is a gift from the Nawabs of Awadh and dates back to the 18th Century. Influenced by Persian, Mughal, and local culinary traditions, the royal cooks created a unique Biryani characterized by the use of saffron, cardamom, and rosewater. Its preparation involves layering basmati rice, marinated meat, and spices in a sealed vessel, allowing the flavors to infuse together. Today, it is celebrated globally for its rich heritage and distinct flavor.
